

Appendix A

Not every incident recorded in police records can be publically reported. Crimes such as those involving domestic violence or rape are kept confidential to ensure the victim's privacy. This report does not include offenses that cannot be disclosed according to Washington State law, and by agreement with the Seattle Police Department. Below is a list of crimes that are not publicly reported. Please note that this is the general list: a crime's inclusion on this list does not indicate that these crimes occurred at any of the locations discussed in this report.

General Category of Crime

- Domestic
- Arson
- Child Abuse
- Suspicious
- Death
- Disturbance (if related to death)
- Gun
- Homicide
- Kidnapping
- Intimidating Witness
- Rape
- Runaway
- Sexual Offense
- Stalking
- Mental
- Missing Person
- Threats ( if related to death)
- Overdose
- Suicide

Appendix B

Researchers often group crimes into broad categories in order to discuss them more easily. Categories may vary depending on the research and the researcher. Below are the categories that we use when working on this project.

Broad Category	General Category of Crime
Person	Aggravated Assault Simple Assault Extortion Robbery
Property	Burglary Embezzlement Forgery Fraud Property Damage Property Stolen Theft
Disorder	Disorderly Conduct Dispute Disturbance Fireworks Harassment Illegal Dumping Liquor Violation Drugs Prostitution Reckless Burning Trespass Urination Weapon Loitering
Other	Counterfeiting Bias Endanger False Report Obstruction Pornography Warrant Threats Violation of Court Order